Floot Admiral Ernest J. King Department of the Navy Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral King:

STAT STAT Thank you for your letter of 24 October bringing the case of ______ to my attention.

is now being considered for a librarian position in our Reference Center. Should she prove suitable for the existing vacancy and be willing to accept the grade level of employment involved, we will accept her application for necessary processing, including the required security check. In such case it normally takes up to 60 days to make final determination as to whether employment can be offered.

You may be assured that we will do our best for her.

Sincerely,

D- Deg 10/31
